

Press Release:

Immanuel Schools Board of Trustees & Superintendent Ryan Wood

IMMANUEL SCHOOLS SELECTS JOSH HENDERSON AS HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Immanuel Schools has announced the selection of Josh Henderson as Head Football Coach and Associate Athletic Director.

“We are excited to have Josh Henderson join our staff and to lead the football program. He is a man of God who understands how to build young men, programs, and communities” said Ryan Wood, Immanuel Schools Superintendent. “We feel blessed to add someone of his character, integrity, and proven success on the football field.”

“I have accepted the position of Head Coach at Immanuel Schools in Reedley, CA. I am extremely excited about this incredible opportunity!”, states Josh Henderson. “Immanuel is a school that teaches Jesus, has strong Christian leadership, and is striving to be great! They have amazing people, excellent facilities, and are postured for growth! I am looking forward to meeting the team this week!”

During Henderson’s 21 years of coaching, his teams have accomplished:

- 1 State Championship - Div 2AA
- 2 Southern California Regional Championships
- 4 CIF Championships
- 12 League Championships.

Henderson has also received Max Preps California Medium Schools Coach of the Year and Cal-Hi State Coach of Year Award honors.

We are confident that Coach Henderson will lead our football team to the level of excellence we are pursuing in all of our athletic programs.

Go Eagles!